

Emergency Response and Recovery

- Emergency response plans deal with protecting people first, property second.
- Emergency responses should attempt to contain, control, or end the emergency. This includes evacuating buildings, fighting fires, turning off utilities, and other response activities
- ERTs should have the skills required to address the specific needs of your company's operations.
- Training is imperative for ERT members. Training should be refreshed and tested periodically.
- Training for ERT members may include firefighting, CPR, first aid, hazardous material containment, and other skills appropriate to the location and nature of the job.